This is a statement regarding an Incident where a male shoplifted £400 worth of Alcohol, then was detained by security staff.

The people I will be talking about in this statement is myself and the male shoplifter who was about 50 years old, bald and wearing a white vest. I will refer to him as Bald Man.

The location that this incident took place is MORRISONS, EALING, W5 2ND, I would describe this location as a Large super market situated in EALING BROADWAY, W5 which is a busy town centre with a high footfall. The store has two entrances one at the front of the property and one at the side.

I am the person named above and my details are known to police. I work for TTS Security my position is Store Security. On MONDAY 24TH OF JUNE 2024, at 10:00 Hours I was on duty working at Morrison's, when I noticed a white male who was around 50 years old walk straight to the alcohol section, which is at the back of the store. The male was carrying a black rucksack and filled this bag up with around 12 bottles of alcohol. I watched this male walk past the tills and not even attempt to pay for these items. The bald male walked past the scanners which began to beep. I then approached the male and asked if I could see his receipt. The bald male tried to walk past me so I grabbed his arm using Section 3 of the Criminal Law Act 1967 and told him he was detained and to follow me. I escorted the male upstairs to the holding room until police arrived.
